

TOWN OF BLUFFTON PROCLAMATION
FOR
DECLARATION OF CECIL P. REYNOLDS DAY

WHEREAS, the Town of Bluffton and the Greater Bluffton Community are blessed by countless citizens who live in our community, helping make Bluffton a better place and giving years of fruitful work and unheralded service, and

WHEREAS, Cecil P. Reynolds was one of those citizens. He passed away on June 9, 2010; and

WHEREAS, Cecil P. Reynolds was a native son of Bluffton and served his community well as Bluffton Police Chief, first appointed Fire Chief, Beaufort County Councilmember, Beaufort County Magistrate and Bluffton Municipal Judge, and most recently worked the polls on election days.

WHEREAS, Reynolds was instrumental in making sure the Town of Bluffton's precincts ran efficiently and honestly. He also assisted in the historic Town of Bluffton's "tallying of votes" after polls closed. He announced the votes on each ballot during the "tallying" and always encouraged public scrutiny. He was an asset to the Town of Bluffton Municipal Election Commission and the Beaufort County Election Commission for approximately 35 years; and

WHEREAS, Reynolds sets an example for all to follow through his work ethics and contributions to the community. The Town of Bluffton wishes to recognize his years of service and citizenship that brought great credit to himself and his community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lisa Sulka, Mayor of the Town of Bluffton, along with Town Council, Town Staff, and the citizens wish to honor his memory by declaring November 2, 2010 Election Day as Cecil P. Reynolds Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and caused the seal of the Town of Bluffton to be affixed this October 12, 2010.

Mayor Lisa Sulka
